

NEW HARVEY PLANT . . . Artist's conception of Harvey Aluminum's new reduction plant, now under construction at The Dalles, Oregon. Scheduled to be in partial operation early in 1958, the facility will have an annual capacity of 108 million pounds of primary aluminum. Located on a scenic setting on the Columbia River, the plant is 2 miles east of

The Dalles and 82 miles east of Portland. Designed by Harvey engineers, the new reduction plant is reported to be an improvement upon all smelters now in operation. The electrolytic cells in which the aluminum is made are being built by Harvey Aluminum to maintain the best air control, minimize power consumption, and increase daily yield.

INSPECT PROGRESS . . . Paul Seigel, president of Innes Shoe Co., and Jack Slavin, manager, inspect progress on the new store which opens Thursday in the South Bay Shopping Center.

Innes Shoe Store in South Bay to Open

Grand opening celebration of the new Innes store in South Bay Center, 174th St. and Hawthorne ave., takes place next Thursday, Sept. 12. There will be many celebrities on hand including Congressman Cecil King. Just returned from Washington; Los Angeles County Supervisor Burton Chase, Mayor Lee Senter, Councilman Eunice Patterson; Paul Moore, president of Redondo Beach Chamber of Commerce and the Chamber's General Manager Keith Ackman. Paul Seigel, president of Innes Shoe Company, announces that the official ceremonies will start at 12:30. At 3 p.m. sharp, Chukko, the Birthday Clown of KABC-TV's "Chukko's Cartoons" will be on hand to help this Innes Shoe store celebration. He brings his entire show and will entertain youngsters of all ages, including his popular circus wagon and magic show, and will give away toys, gifts, balloon animals and autographed pictures of himself. The Innes South Bay Center store is the 14th of a chain of fine, modern family shoe stores. Innes is known throughout the Los Angeles area for carrying the largest and most complete selection of men's, women's and children's shoes, so no matter what size—what style—what color—what type of leather—what price bracket, every member of the family will have a large selection from which to choose. The manager of the new store will be Jack Slavin, an Innes man for 10 years, who comes to South Bay directly from his post as manager of the Innes Westchester store. Samuel Ayola, 20619 S. Vermont Ave., reported to police someone had taken a pair of glasses and four hub caps from his unoccupied car. The glasses and hub caps were valued at $100.

Pair Arrested After Fight Over Bowling

One man has been charged with drunkenness and another with assault to do great bodily harm as the result of what they told sheriff's deputies was a bowling bet. Edward Earl DeLancey, 22833 Ladeene Ave., was charged with drunkenness after he told officers that Leroy Wallace Hansen, 613 E. 225th, beat him up in front of 2034 Pacific Coast Hwy.

Symphony Concert Set Today in Park

The South Bay-Torrance Civic Symphony, will give its second annual promenade "Pop" concert at 3 p.m. today at the band shell in Torrance Park, Santa Fe and Arlington. Top performers include Doris Welton, harp soloist; Jack Lockhart, tenor, singing popular light-opera favorites; and little Ronald Romm, a member of the South Bay-Torrance Civic Symphony youth orchestra, playing a trumpet solo. The orchestra will feature several amusing novelty numbers. Local Talent The Civic Symphony is dedicated to the development and encouragement of local talent. The soloists for this concert, all fine artists who have been popular elsewhere, are residents of this area. Elyse Aehe, the conductor, lives in Palos Verdes. She was one of the first women to become regular conductor to be civic symphony. Before coming to California, she had conducted the Alton, Ill., Symphony for 10 years, the Spanish Orchestra on tour in the U. S. and Canada, and had been violin soloist with many famous symphony orchestras. She also had her own radio program twice a week on the Columbia network. Versatile Harpist Doris Welton, a resident of Palos Verdes, is harpist of the Civic Symphony, a vocalist, has played the lead in a number of dramatic productions, was a finalist in the "Mrs. America" contest of 1956, and the mother of four children. She is active at the Palos Verdes Neighborhood Church.

Jack Lockhart lives in Redondo. A singer with a range of 2 1/2 octaves and ability to sing in five languages, he was a star of radio station WDAY, in motion pictures, and of personal appearances. The famous singing coach, Prokowsky, said of him, "This is perhaps the greatest tenor voice in America today." Concerts Planned This concert is the first appearance of the orchestra this season. Already plans are completed for six more concerts, which will soon be announced. The orchestra is a member of the Symphony League which is composed of the 10 leading orchestras of Los Angeles county. This concert is free and is the gift of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors, Burton W. Chace representing the district. It is approved by the Los Angeles County Music Commission and is assisted by the Music Performance Trust Fund of the recording industry through Local 47, AFM, Eliot Daniel, president. This concert is presented by the South Bay-Torrance Symphony Assn., of which Mayor Albert Isen is the Torrance chairman, and is under the auspices of the Torrance Recreation Department. Younsters Fete Parents The Wagon Wheels, youngsters' square dance club, gave a party for their parents last week at Lomita Park, with Noble Spees as caller. The group meets at the park each Saturday, with beginners from 1 to 3, and advanced groups from 3 to 4.
